Lyrics for hymns as we worship distantly

Gathering Hymn: We Wait by Heidi Wilson and Adam Feldman Arr. Ed Bolduc

Quiet expectations hope of our salvation, we light the candles one by one to celebrate his coming. The myst'ry of the virgin, young and pure and holy, carrying the Child of Heav'n to save us, everyone.

Refrain: We wait, we pray for Jesus' birth one day, We wait.

The Lord in flesh appearing to us, though undeserving we light the candles one by one to celebrate his coming. Peace and love and joy promise in this boy whose life and death and resurrection give us all new birth.

Refrain: We wait, we pray, for Jesus' birth one day to change the world and change our hearts and save our sinful selves, we wait.

Lord, help us not to hurry through this journey of his coming. Help us really live his story, truly know the Savior's glory with the advent of new life. We wait.

Refrain: We wait, we pray, for Jesus' birth one day to change the world and change our hearts and save our sinful selves, we wait We pray for Jesus' birth one day to change the world and change our hearts and save our sinful selves, we wait.
